TAX DEDUCTIBLE DONATIONS

Kenton College Preparatory School is a non-profit making trust and as such every surplus shilling is reinvested back into the school. As a charitable organisation set up for the advancement of education, any donation to the school is exempt from tax since the income of the school is exempt from tax under Paragraph 10 of the First Schedule to the Non-Governmental Organisations Co-ordination Act 1990 and shall be deductible for purposes of computing taxable income for the donor in a particular year of income.

A tax payer who makes a claim for a donation to be allowed under Section 15 (2) (w) of the Act shall provide proof of that donation to the Commissioner in the form of a receipt of the donation issued and certified by the school and shall be accompanied by:-

- (a) a copy of the exemption certificate issued by the Commissioner to the school and;
- (b) a declaration from the school that the donation shall be used exclusively for the objects of the school.

I am a Kenyan tax payer and I wish Kenton College to supply me with a tax compliant receipt and copies of (a) and (b) above.
